Steve, widely known by his stage name Poppapipes, is an actor, fitness competitor, and social media influencer who has turned his passion for fitness into a growing career in entertainment and digital media. Earning his nickname from his impressive 22-inch biceps, Steve has built a strong following on Instagram and Facebook, generating more than 9 million views per month. His dedication to building an exceptional physique, combined with his charismatic personality and relentless work ethic, has helped him stand out in both the fitness and entertainment industries.

Steve's larger-than-life presence has led to appearances on Comedy Central's Tosh.0 as a CeWEBrity, Bar Room Sports, and ESPN. Continuing to expand his acting career, he is currently filming an action hero series set to appear on a major television network. Beyond entertainment, Steve is passionate about sharing his fitness knowledge and helping others transform their physiques. Through his fitness app, which focuses on developing a lean, aesthetic body, and his eBook, The Art of Arms in 30 Days, he encourages others to pursue their fitness goals with dedication and consistency.

For Steve, fitness is more than a lifestyle — it's a mindset built on discipline, perseverance, and constantly pushing beyond personal limits. Whether he's training, stepping in front of the camera, or inspiring millions through social media, he believes that growth comes from embracing challenges and refusing to settle for ordinary. His personal mantra, "If it doesn't challenge you, it will not change you," perfectly captures the determination and passion that continue to drive his success.
